

NF Dialect Sample Report

1 of 8 Possible Dialects

Focus

The focus of the NF dialect tends to be global in nature with an emphasis on the future and people. Although this dialect is a natural idea generator, the ideas tend to center around personal relationships and well-being. Conversations often take on an idealistic quality as well as a quick and creative pace. Topics generate topics, which generate more topics, etc. In addition to the energy in their conversations, there is also fun. NFs can quickly become bored by details.
